TAJ MAHAL

Neolith Taj Mahal replicates the noble and natural appearance of the finest quartzite, with a warm beige tone and delicate ochre veins that convey calm and balance. Its luminous aesthetic is perfect for creating serene and elegant spaces that radiate warmth and modernity.

This model brings a unique character to the space, transforming it into an evocative environment. Its soft color and mineral undertones create a sense of openness and clarity, adapting effortlessly to both classic and contemporary styles, while elevating the design with a refined and sophisticated touch.

It is presented in a Silk finish, with a smooth texture that highlights the richness of its veins and enhances the stone's natural appearance.

AZURE

Neolith Azure is defined by a harmonious light base in soft tones, combined with subtle bluish-gray hues, creating a bright and sophisticated backdrop.

Delicate grayish transparencies emerge across the design naturally, adding freshness and a subtle dynamism. Its elegant veins flow gracefully through the material, transforming into golden reflections and warm flashes that suggest a discreet, contemporary mineral richness.

It is available in a Silk finish, with an exquisite digital texture that highlights the movement of its veins, providing a refined and natural look.

MAMBA

Neolith Mamba evokes the enigmatic beauty of Port Laurent marble, reinterpreting its essence with a dark, clean, and nuanced background that radiates a cool, confident elegance. Its muted tones lend a powerful presence, ideal for creating a unique visual impact in both classic and contemporary settings.

Designed for those seeking a bold and refined style, this model enhances any space, imbuing it with personality and an exclusive atmosphere. Its solid, enveloping aesthetic transforms interior design into a statement of character and distinction.

This model is available in a Silk finish, providing a matte look that reinforces its exclusive character.
